

Daletha McRae-Berlack, M.Ed., CFED® - The Financial Connection

Mrs. Daletha S. McRae-Berlack received her Master's in Education from Indiana University in Bloomington, IN. She is a Certified Financial Educator with The Heartland Institute of Financial Education (HIFE), and provides financial education and awareness to families, ministries, small and mid-size businesses nationwide. As a member of the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM), Daletha is committed to working cohesively with and adding value to the workplace by streamlining employee distractions and lack of productivity due to financial stress.

An effective and enthusiastic educator and presenter, Daletha has taught Financial Wellness classes for Employees of Fortune 500 companies, government, agencies, churches and other non-profit organizations. She has taught financial wellness workshops, train-the-trainer mentor programs, and shared in capacity modeling initiatives with subsidiaries of the AEGON Company over the last 12 years.

Daletha has owned her own financial services practice for over a decade (DSM & Associates Consulting Group), empowering businesses and families to grow wealth through a variety of financial strategies and services. She has mentored and trained more than 150 business partners in her private practice. The message of Building a Proper Financial Foundation has spread to touch many lives from Chief Operating Officers, Human Resource Directors, business owners, professionals, key persons and launching entrepreneurs.

Daletha is married with three daughters. She is a member of several local and national organizations, including North Point Community Church in Alpharetta, GA, and Delta Sigma Theta, Sorority Incorporated.
